The News.

A variety of interesting items will be found under our telegraphic head this morning.

From Washington, we have nothing of unusual importance. The President and the notorious Calhoun are playing the Lecompton game together, and endeavoring to stifle an investigation of the Kansas frauds. It is said the Senate Committee on Territories will report Kansas back to-day.

We have intelligence from the Plains to the 14th ult. Business was brisk, and there was no palpable demonstrations of hostilities on the part of the Utah Indians.

Endeavors were being made to prevent their alliance with the Mormons.

We have news from Cuba by the Empire City. Commander Paulding had received a handsome entertainment from the authorities there. We also have America news by the Empire City.

From New York we learn that Col. Wade Hampton of S. C. died suddenly on the 10th.

The steamer Niagara in her 16th day from Liverpool on Saturday, had not yet been signalled.

A public school house had been destroyed in N. Y. by fire.

The proceedings of our State Legislature are of considerable interest. It will be seen that Byron Kilbourn Esq. has been ordered into the custody of the Sergeant-at-Arms until to-morrow, for refusing to appear before the Investigating Committee. Mr. Kilbourn contended that the Committee had not the authority assumed.

Our commercial reports indicate more liveliness in the markets in some places, without change to note in prices.

The weather in most places throughout the West is reported either cloudy or snowing.

Our weekly review of local financial and commercial affairs will be found in another column.

Annual Convention of the Board of Lake Underwriters.

The annual meeting of the Board of Lake Underwriters, commenced its session this morning at 11 o'clock, at St. James' Hall, says the Buffalo Commercial of the 10th inst. J. A. Hollenstein of Milwaukee, was chosen President of the Convention, and D. P. Dobbins, Secretary.

The chairman of the Executive Committee, E. P. Dorr, opened the proceedings by reading the report of that committee.

A. A. Eastaphieve, Secretary Buffalo Insurance Company.

February 11.

Second Day—We continue our report of yesterday's session.

A resolution was adopted that all motions be put in writing.

On motion of Mr. J. L. Weatherly, the Convention proceeded to consider the report of the Executive Committee.

The President by resolution of the Convention, appointed Messrs. James Dowdall and William Steward a committee to report upon the recommendations of the Executive Committee.

The President appointed a similar committee, composed of Messrs. J. L. Starr, and Benj. Bagnall, to report upon the annual report of the Secretary of the Association.

The committee after consultation, recommended that the report be considered in committee of the whole, which was adopted.

Mr. Samuel Hast was heard in behalf of the new Companies formed in Milwaukee.

During the afternoon session, the report of the Secretary was taken up and acted upon. The action of the inspectors as reported in August last, was approved.

On motion of Mr. Eustaphieve, it was deemed inexpedient at present to incorporate in policies of insurance the "Load Line Table," but that inspectors be requested to recommend to all owners and, captains to partially adopt the same, that they keep a register of all that do not, and furnish a copy of the same to the Secretary, and that a copy of the table be furnished each agent of the Insurance Companies.

On motion of Benj. Bagnall, a resolution was adopted that for all ports South of Milwaukee on the West side of Lake Michigan ½ of 1 per cent. be added to present rates on cargoes, provided the same be adopted by the New York Board of Underwriters.

A resolution, offered by J. N. Gardiner, that for premium on hulls, credit shall not extend beyond four months, and that when policies are assigned, the assignee shall guarantee the payment of the note before assent is given, or if loss be payable to another party such payee shall guarantee the payment of the premium note, was postponed for consideration.

ONLY TWO PARTIES.—The Madison Argus authoritatively announces that "there are but "two parties in the Union, at present, and these "are Administration and anti-Administration." It also puts down STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS as the "great champion" of the Republican party, who are "concentering and centralizing about him." If the political classification of the Argus be conceded as correct, the "Administration party," in this State at least, will be in a miserable minority. The entire body of the Republicans and the great mass of the Democrats repudiate the Lecompton Swindle, and few can be found in this State, save office-seekers, or office-holders, to sustain the Administration on its own chosen test.

OUR MEMBER IN THE HOUSE.—A friend at Washington, himself a member of Congress, but not from this State, sends us an account of the fight on the night of the 5th inst. A private note, accompanying the letter, says:

"Your M. C. Mr. POTTER, distinguished himself on this occasion. I never saw a better fighter. Every blow told. His gallant and heroic bearing is the theme of universal commendation, and won eulogies even from many Southern gentlemen."

This is just what his constituents expected of JOHN F. POTTER. He is true as steel and Wisconsin is proud of him.

ROBBERY AT HALE'S CORNERS—THE THIEF CAUGHT.—On Friday night, policeman Capron returned to this city, in company with a thief named Wm. Newell, in search of whom he had been dispatched the day previous. It appears that a pedler's wagon, belonging to a man in this city named Lewis Newman was broken into at Hale's Corners, on Thursday night, and robbed of some $350, of goods. Newman gave information of the robbery to the Chief of Police the next day, and policeman Capron was immediately sent in pursuit of the robber. He at first went to Hale's Corners, and followed a sleigh track from the place where the robbery had been committed, to within about a mile of the village of Waukesha, where he overtook the thief and found all the goods in his possession on a one horse sleigh. Upon the officer first making known his business, the robber tried to bluff him off, and demanded upon what authority he arrested him. "Here is my authority, sir" said the policeman, exhibiting an improved six-shooter. Newell made no further objections, but accompanied the officer quietly to this city.

THE RAILROAD BALL.—The Ball given by the employees of the Northern division of the C. St. P. & F. du L. Railroad, at Fond du Lac, on Thursday night, was gotten up as railroad boys usually get up such affairs, in "the best style of the art." The capacious Armory Hall was well filled, although not too much crowded, and was decorated in excellent taste. A large number of those present were from this city, Chicago and other places, and all enjoyed themselves hugely. Those who attended from this city are under many obligations to Mr. MARTIN HENDRICKS for his untiring efforts in their behalf, and we can testify that he spared no pains to make their pleasure complete.

LA CROSSE R. R. FARM MORTGAGES.—Mr. L. L. Doty Treasurer of the La Crosse railroad, has received and handed us the following notice relative to the La Crosse R. R. Farm Mortgages, which was sent him by Mr. Clark, President of the road:

OFFICE OF THE LA CROSSE & MIL. R. R. CO. }
ALBANY, Feb. 9, 1858. }

The interest on the farm mortgages of this Company, which by the terms of the mortgages fell due January 1, 1858, will be paid on presentation of the coupons at the office of the Company No. 480 Broadway, in the city of Albany, on and after the 20th inst.

STEPHEN CLARK, President.

The papers at Madison, Portage City, Beaver Dam, and Horicon, are to requested publish the notice, and charge for it as an advertisement.

FOURTH WARD—PEOPLE'S MEETING.—The meeting held on Saturday night, at Concert Hall, to nominate a candidate for Alderman in the Fourth Ward, vice Taylor, removed from the city, was very largely attended. On the ballot for a candidate, 160 votes were cast, of which HIRAM A. BOND received 88, a majority of the whole number, and was declared unanimously nominated. On motion of S. M. BOOTH, the thanks of the meeting were voted to Hon. JOHN F. POTTER, our member of Congress, for his manly and spirited conduct in the House of Representatives, on the night of the 5th inst. The resolution was adopted by acclamation.

We trust that every Fourth Ward man will be on hand next Wednesday, and give Mr. BOND a hearty support.

CITY FUNDS ATTACHED.—At the meeting of the Common Council yesterday, the Comptroller reported that he had received a telegraphic dispatch from Messrs. Meigs & Groenleaf and Wm. Schell & Co., of New York, stating that the city funds in their hands had been attached. The Comptroller says that this attachment was no doubt made by some party or parties holding coupons past due and unpaid, on bonds issued by this city to either the Milwaukee & Superior, or Green Bay, Milwaukee and Chicago R. R. Co, who have failed to provide for their payment.—He has addressed a note to the above effect, to Mr. Watkins, the President of the G. B. M. & C. R. R., but has received no reply. The matter was referred to the Finance Committee, and City Attorney.

FAT PORKERS.—Last week some of the handsomest hogs that have ever been brought to our market, might have been seen on the railroad platform. One two year old porker, we saw on Saturday, that weighed six hundred and seventeen pounds, and a few days previous one was sold at the same place weighing six hundred and fifty-two pounds. The hogs coming into our market this season are the finest we have seen for many a day.

THE WEATHER.—The snow storm for which we had been looking for several days came on Saturday. The snow fell all the afternoon, but drifted so as not to improve the sleighing much. On Saturday night however, there was a fair prospect of having more before to-day What little snow we have had, has been well improved, as the constant jingle of the merry sleigh bells rattling through our streets amply testifies.

FIRE ALARM.—On Saturday night, between 8 and 9 o'clock, an alarm of fire was sounded, and considerable of an uproar kicked up without any apparent cause. The fire companies ran through the streets in all directions in search of the fire, and then ran back to their houses without finding it. We are inclined to think the alarm originated with some noisy youngsters, who were snow-balling each other on East Water Street.

QUIET TIMES.—There was nothing going on in the Police Court Friday or Saturday. This speaks well for a large city like ours.

Weekly Review of our Markets.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL, }
MILWAUKEE, Feb. 15, 1858. }

Received by M. & M. R. R., for the week ending Saturday, Feb. 13th.—945 bbls flour, 25,081 bus wheat, 905 do barley, 1,350 do oats, 249,468 lbs pork, 15,676 do hides, 650 do poultry, and 600 stockholders.

No material change has taken place in the market prices since our last weekly review although more animation has been exhibited in business circles than for several weeks past. Receipts by R. R. and otherwise have slightly improved, and produce generally has been in fair demand, with more lively inquiry towards the close of the week. Good qualities of milling wheat met with ready sale on Saturday for 82c, a slight advance on our previous quotations. No change to notice in other grain, save oats, which were in moderate supply and slightly increased demand at our figures. Dressed hogs have been coming in freely, with increased supply; towards the end of the week, and have found ready sale at 5,00 to 5,40, and 5,50 at retail. The packers have been buying largely during the week. Hay and wood have been in good supply, and towards the close of the week the demand for the former somewhat increased, and prices improved slightly in consequence of a falling off in the supply. The weather for the greater part has been what we might expect at this season of the year, and the roads are in excellent condition, with enough snow to make tolerably good sleighing. Below will be found our weekly review of financial affairs. Our quotations to-day are as follows:

WHEAT—In good demand, at 85@89 for spring, 90@92 for good club to mill, and 95@90 for the range of winter.
BARLEY—Nominal at 87@90c.
RYE—Dull, 45@50.
OATS—In fair request, 26@27.
CORN—No sale, nominal at 31@37.
POTATOES—Small supply and not much enquiry; choice lots might bring 87½c.
BUTTER—Rather dull, 11@12 for firkin, 15@16 for roll.
EGGS—Quite dull at 10@12 for fresh.
FLOUR—$3,75@4 for winter, $3@3,85 for extra spring.
HAY—In fair supply and selling at $6@7 for marsh, and $7@11 for timothy.
WOOD—Plenty at $3,25@4 for best hard wood, and $2,50@3 for mixed qualities.
HOGS—In good demand at $5@5,40 and $5,50 for some heavy hogs at retail.
POULTRY—Scarce and firm, at 8c for chickens, 10@.8 for turkeys.

PROVISION MARKET.

Messrs. Layton & Plankinton, of the Bull's Head Cattle Market, report no change in the live stock market. Cattle market has been well supplied, and prices are firm at $3,50 for good market cattle, and $3,75 for packing do. But few live hogs have come in. Dressed hogs have come in freely, and have found ready sale at 5 to 5,40 Provisions have slightly advanced, and are in good demand. We quote:

Mess Pork $14@14,50, Prime $11.
Mess Beef $10.
Lard 9c.
Hams 10c.
Candles 12½c.
Soap 5, 6, 7 and 8c.

THE LUMBER MARKET.

Prices are lower, and most of the Yards are selling at the following prices: Common lumber, all sorts, $12, clear $20@25, flooring, &c., $20@39, clear siding $18, common do $12, lath 4½@5, shingles warranted, 2,25@2,50. Some of the Yards sell at even lower figures for cash, but the gen eral impression is, that it will pay to hold on to lumber, as by all accounts, very little will be made this Winter, and the Country Yards have not as good an assortment as they had a year ago.

SUGARS, &c.

GOODRICH & TERRY, Wholesale Grocers and Commission Merchants, quote: Loaf Sugar double refd 12¼, crushed do do 12½; clarified C 8¾, Powdered Sugar, double refined 12¼; clarified X 9¾, refined white C 10¾, do yellow A 9¾, do do B 9, New Orleans sugars 6¾@9; Golden Syrup, in bbls, 70c, do in 10 g lion keg 80c.

MONEY MARKET.

BANKING AND EXCHANGE OFFICE OF BRIDGE BROTHERS, }
105 EAST WATER ST., MIL. Feb. 19, '58. }

"A thrice told tale" becomes finally a familiar matter, and to a certain degree receives credit. We have the same confidence in our oft repeated statement that money is daily growing easier, that we have formerly expressed. Those who cannot obtain loans, and consequently are the ralliers at hard times, as a general thing have no good collaterals, and expect money loaners to part with cash on a simple note. The fact is, most securities now offered are almost worthless, and many bonds and mortgages in the hands of borrowers will not stand scrutiny. One good effect of the past crisis will be experienced in the overhauling of all kinds of hypothecated paper, and many will find that in the way of mortgages particularly, a close inspection will prove them of little value. Confidence and credit have together nearly mired many capitalists, and it is no matter of surprise now that so much caution should be observed. Accounts from all our large cities, both South and East, agree that with a large surplus of money, the character of paper offered is exceptionable... It is state of things will continue until business is once more brought to a solid basis, and finances and merchandise run in their proper channel.

Exchange still keeps its high rate, the banks having in some late instances paid as high as 2¾ to 9¾ ₰ cent. premium, and refusing to sell except to regular customers.

Currency is also very low in our bank vaults, and this singular coincidence of a scarcity both of Exchange and currency is accounted for by the large amounts of past due or extended paper held by our monied institutions.

Land Warrants are in small demand at present. We quote selling:

40's	1,10 per acre.
80's	97 " "
120's	90 " "
160's	87 " "

Exchange nominal, selling at ¾ ₰ cent. Gold selling at 2¾ ₰ cent,

We annex our usual specie list.

It also recommends that reinforcements be sent through New Mexico, describing the route as being much easier than the northern, with abundance of provisions, forage, destitute of canon, and can be traced quicker than via Fort Laramie.

The Penitentiary Hospital on Blackwell's Island, was totally destroyed by fire this morning; the 600 inmates were all rescued, though in the panic it was accomplished with great difficulty. The total loss is upwards of $80,000.

The steamer Edinburgh sailed to day for Glasgow, with the United States passengers, and no specie.

Destructive Fire in Utica.

The Evening Telegraph a news-paper office and the book store of J. W. Fuller & Co., were destroyed by fire last night. The drug store of G. D. Foster was also greatly damaged. The aggregate loss will be from $30,000 to $35,000; insurance about $20,000.

XXXVth Congress—First Session.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.

HOUSE.—Mr. Howard said that rumors were afloat involving the rights and dignity of the House, and asked leave to offer a resolution for the appointment of a committee to investigate whether attempts have been made by persons connected with the Executive Department of the Government, or persons acting under their advice, to influence the action of the House, directly or indirectly, by promise or intimidation, or giving or witholding of patronage, &c.

Mr. Warren objected to the reception of the resolution. If Mr. Howard would put his finger on the person so offending, he would vote with him, but he could not do so on such sweeping indefinite charges.

Mr Houston said if the gentleman would state on his own responsibility that improper influences had been used, it would afford tangible ground for an investigation, but not scurrilous articles from the newspapers.

Mr. Howard read from the Richmond South an article which said the President declared he would put the Lecompton Constitution through in thirty days or burst, as the four desirable votes could be procured by means of Executive appointments; but it would require nice engineering.

Mr. Millson read from "Jefferson's Manual," to show that Mr. Howard himself had committed a breach of privilege.

Mr. Warren said the Speaker must see that this was not a question of privilege. He thought this attempt to attack gentlemen who stand fair before the nation radically wrong.

The Speaker thought this matter did present a question of privilege.

Mr. Howard read from the correspondence of the New York Tribune of Thursday.

Mr. Burns pronounced the statements in the Tribune an unqualified falsehood.

Mr. Stephens remarked that the movement of Mr. Hoard is founded on a vague rumor. It was time and passed it, to end such proceedings.

Mr. Washburne, of Me., accused Mr. Stephens of an attempt to strangle investigation.

Mr. Howard read from the Constitution, showing that the President's power with Congress only extends to matters of legislation, and from Washington's farewell address against trespassing on the rights of the National Legislature, adding that these newspaper statements form a basis for the action of the House.

Mr. Warren said that if Mr. Howard insinuated that men on the Democratic side were influenced by cowardise, hope or fear, he was much mistaken; neither the executive or others could influence them. He was on the track of a distinguished reporter, and if he could find him he would expel him; if gentlemen wanted to attack Democrats they would be met, but the Democrats don't want to stab under the ribs.

Mr. Giddings was sorry to see unnecessary excitement. It became statesmen, representatives of free people, to purge themselves of such charges of corruption. He referred to the fact that the Democrats once expelled a reporter of the Tribune for stating that their colleague, Mr. Sawyer, ate sausages.

The House by a vote of 108 against 88, decided that Mr. Howard's resolution was not a question of Privilege. Adjourned till Monday.

Execution of Murderers.

Pittsburg, Feb. 12.

Henry Fyfe and Charlotte Jones, two of the McKeesport murderers, were hung this afternoon at 2 o'clock. About thirty persons witnessed the execution inside the jail yard. Large crowd outside. Both delivered addresses acknowledging the justice of the sentence, but pronounced Monroe Stewart innocent. The latter is sentenced to be hung in a fortnight.

Bishop Potter, who was attacked on Wednesday by a severe apoplexy at Greensburg, is better, but still in a critical state.

Fire at the Michigan Insane Asylum.

Kalamazoo, Feb. 12.

The main part of the Michigan State Insane Asylum was destroyed by fire last night, at half-past eleven, together with several sets of carpenter's tools, and some lumber. The roof at the joint of the main building with the wing, was torn up by the efforts of a few men, and the wing, which is by far the largest, most expensive and the nearest completion, was thus saved.

The origin of the fire is unknown, as the building was unoccupied. The loss will probably exceed $25,000.

Washington Items.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.

The board appointed by the war department, to examine Sharp's breach loading pistols, of a similar construction to the breech loading carbine, has made a report. The object being to ascertain how long they could be used without cleaning after 26 shots with the 8 and 13 inch; with the 10 inch the moveable or sliding breech becomes so foul as to work with difficulty, and to render further experiment impracticable; ten shots were fired in one minute.

Treasury statement for the week ending Monday—Receipts nearly $664,000; amount on deposit in New York, $1,500,000; subject to draft $4,489,000; drafts paid $1,101,000. For the quarter ending the 1st of January, the receipts the treasury, from all sources, $7,920,655; expenses $17,000,000.

Double Dealing on the Kansas Question.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, Feb. 9.

A double game is being played on the Kansas question. The President is constantly assuring the Northern Democrats privately that he knows the Free-State Legislature to be returned elected. Calhoun, who ostentatiously declares that he has not seen the President, is constantly assuring the Southern men that in any event the Pro-Slavery men will have the control of the State.

The game of the Lecomptonities in the Senate is to stifle an investigation of the frauds, and so they voted down Douglas' resolution to-day, lest it might be rendered impossible for anybody to countenance them. They are trying to keep matters straight until they have got every Democrat committed that they possibly can; then, if it is found absolutely necessary in order to gain the measure in the Senate, Calhoun will return a Free-State Legislature, although he has said that he would make no return until after Kansas shall have been admitted. But it is intended, still to return the Pro-Slavery State Ticket so that the Governor can veto any legislative act calling a new Convention.

Calhoun yesterday, in effect, proposed to return the Free-State Legislature if Harris would withdraw his resolution, which he declined.

Harris is in consultation with Orr to-night, relative to the selection of the Special Committee.

It was Searing, and not Seaman, who voted with the Lecomptonites yesterday, promising to vote against them if Harris would modify his resolution, as he did.

The Senate Committee on Territories will meet on Thursday. Kansas will probably not be reported back until Monday.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Fight in the House—From an eye witness.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The Capital is in a state of great excitement, about the Kansas parliamentary battle in the House last night, and the fight upon the floor between the Republican members and the Southerners. In the parliamentary fight the Republicans came off best, the Democrats making important concessions. In the fight on the floor, the Northern men were also triumphant. I saw the whole affair from the gallery. Mr. Grow, although accosted by insulting language, maintained his temper and his dignity, and observed the proprieties of the place, until Kelit struck him. Then, with a single blow judiciously planted beneath the right ear, he sent the towering form of the South Carolinian headlong and prostrate on the floor. No man was ever more scientifically knocked down.

The part of the Hall in which this occurred is that which is occupied by the Southern members. The Republicans sit on the opposite side. Grow was alone among the hottest fire-eaters having gone over to speak to a Douglas Democrat.—About twenty of the Southerners rushed at him, while others picked up Mr. Kelit and carried him to a sofa. Grow faced the crowd manfully, did not flinch an atom and fought with great determination. He is a splendid fellow to look at, with a fine figure and a very energetic countenance. The first to his rescue was Mr. Potter, of your State, who quick as lightning dashed in among the Southerners, striking to the right and left with such fury that in a moment he was at the side of Grow in hot contest with two or three Mississippians, one of whom, Barksdale, wears a wig, which Potter knocked off by a tremendous blow on the head. Washburne of Wisconsin, and Washburne of Illinois, pitched in almost at the same time that Potter did, though from a different quarter.

Springing over desks and chairs they plunged into the thickest of the crowd, dealing blows that would have floored those who encountered them if there had been room to fall. Tappan, of New Hampshire, and Kilgore, of Indiana, were equally prompt, and in half a minute most of the Republicans were on the Southern side of the House, either fighting or trying to separate those who fought. The Sergeant-at-Arms and other officers of the House, finally succeeded in putting a stop to the battle, which was truly a free fight while it lasted.

The Southerners fought well, and were very good humored after it was over. Several of those who were engaged in the fray came over to the Republican side of the House and complimented Potter on the brilliant style in which he pitched into them. They appear to be greatly impressed by the readiness and vigor with which he and the Washburns went into the fight.—Some of them say also that Kelit got what he deserved, and that gentleman himself admits that he acted foolishly. He will probably apologize to the House on Monday.

OBSERVER.

FOX RIVER VALLEY R. R.—The following gentlemen were elected Directors of the Fox River Valley Railroad Company, at a meeting of the stockholders, held on Thursday, February 11, 1858:—

Wm. P. Young,	Edward P. Allis,
Allan Johnson,	S. S. Conover,
George Dyer,	Amos T. Brown,
Chas. G. Cotting,	R. G. McClellan,
Palmer Gardiner,	M. L. Ayres,
J. Muth,	A. Cooper,
	P. Bolden.

At a meeting of the new Board of Directors, held on the same day, the following officers were elected:—

President.—WM. P. YOUNG.
Vice President.—EDWARD P. ALLIS.
Secretary.—H. W. GEORGE.
Treasurer.—ALLAN JOHNSON.

This road is making steady progress, some 400 men having been kept at work upon it, all winter. Nearly 40 per cent. of the grading is finished, and all the estimates have been promptly paid.

MILITARY APPOINTMENTS.—We think that Gov. Randall acts wisely and justly in ignoring party in his military appointments. Our militia are composed of all parties, and therefore fairness demands a distribution of those appointments.—Wisconsin.

We concur in this opinion, and so we think, upon reflection, will those who have been disposed to censure the Governor for bestowing Military Commissions upon Democrats as well as Republicans.

A MAGNIFICENT STRUCTURE.—The Victoria Bridge across the St. Lawrence, at Montreal, which has been in the course of construction for several years, it is said, will be the largest and finest in the world. It is to be two miles in length. The total amount of masonry in the bridge will be 3,000,000 cubic feet which, at 18½ feet to the ton, gives a total weight of about 22,000 tons. Fourteen of the piers are completed, and it is expected that eight more will be finished next season, leaving only two to erect in 1859. The total weight of iron in the tubes will be 10,400 tons. The bridge, when completed, is estimated to cost the comfortable sum of $6,000,000.

A CHIP OF THE OLD BLOCK.—Lieutenant Havelock, son of the late General, Havelock, has received the decoration of the Victoria Cross for an act of bravery, recorded in the London Gazette thus:

The Sixty-fourth regiment had been much under artillery fire, from which it had severely suffered. The whole of the infantry were lying down in line, when, perceiving that the enemy had brought out the last reserved gun, a 24 pounder, and were rallying round it, I called up the regiment to rise and advance. Without any other word from me, Lieutenant Havelock placed himself on his horse in front of the centre of the Sixty-fourth, opposite the muzzle of the gun.—Major Sterling commanding the regiment, was in front, dismounted, but the Lieutenant continued to move steadily on in front of the regiment at a foot pace, on his horse. The gun discharged shot until the troops were within a short distance, led by the Lieutenant, who still steered steadily on the gun's muzzle until it was mastered by a rush of the Sixty-fourth.

SPECIMEN FACTS.—Letters from Kansas state that the investigations by the Kansas Legislature show that there were only thirty-two voters in the Oxford district, from which eighteen hundred votes were returned. The Kickapoo vote was certified by the judges as 48; somebody added a 5 before the figures, and returned the vote as 548.

IOWA.—The Republicans of Iowa have called a State Convention to meet at Iowa City on the 17th day of June next, for nominating candidates for Secretary of State, Auditor, Treasurer and Attorney General, and for the transaction of such other business, as may come before the Convention.

REPUDIATION THREATENED.—The city of Wheeling, Virginia, has issued bonds in behalf of railroad improvements, to the amount of $1,050,000, and some of the citizens are in favor of repudiating the interests on these bonds, because the roads pay no dividends.

Analysis of the Vote.

The New York Tribune gives the following analysis of the vote on referring the Lecompton Message, to the Committee on Territories—the closest of all the memorable votes in the House on Monday. It will be seen that the vote was an uncommonly full one. It is larger, if we mistake not, than any previous one ever cast in that body:

For Lecompton.		Against Lecompton.
From Slave States	84	From Slave States	9
From Free States	29	From Free States	114
Total	113	Total	114

By States the vote was as follows:

For Lecompton.		Against Lecompton.
Connecticut	2	Maine	6
New York	11	New Hampshire	5
New Jersey	3	Massachusetts	11
Pennsylvania	2	Rhode Island	2
Ohio	2	Connecticut	3
Indiana	6	Vermont	5
Kentucky	10	New York	31
Tennessee	10	New Jersey	5
Delaware	1	Pennsylvania	15
Maryland	1	Ohio	19
Virginia	13	Indiana	5
North Carolina	5	Illinois	5
South Carolina	4	Michigan	4
Georgia	8	Wisconsin	3
Alabama	10	Iowa	2
Mississippi	5	California	1
Louisiana	4	Maryland	1
Arkansas	2	Missouri	1
Florida	1
Texas	2
Missouri	5
California	1
Total	113	Total	114

ABSENT.

New York.....Matteson.
Pennsylvania...Reilly, Scott.
Maryland...Harris.
Missouri.....Caruthers, Bonham.
S. Carolina...Bonham.

Not voting.....Orr, Speaker, of S. C.

Of the absentees, Matteson is a Republican, Harris a K. N., and the rest are Democrats: but the two from Pennsylvania are thought to be anti-Lecompton. It is manifest from the above analysis that the project of defeating the Swindle in the House is a very doubtful one, at best. Its success in the Senate is already assured. But neither President, nor Congress can fasten this Slavery yoke upon the Free People of Kansas.

THE NEWS ON LECOMPTON.—Our neighbors of the News make but poor headway in their "official" endeavors to reconcile the democracy of this State to the Lecompton Swindle. The Janesville Standard, a bold, as well as able democratic paper, thus replies to some of the News' Pro-Slavery talk:

If the Milwaukee News had maintained a prudent silence in regard to the Kansas affairs until it received its orders, and then had taken the position it now assumes, we should have respected its discretion, if not its honesty.

If the News, after having been betrayed into the indiscretion of telling the plain and honest truth in regard to a important question, had relapsed into a studious and prudent silence, when it became apparent that the plain and honest truth was not acceptable to the source of all the democracy of that journal, we should have been spared the trouble of exhibiting to a jeering audience its pitiful squirmings and abject prostration.

If the News, regardless of the emoluments of the Milwaukee post office, had maintained the position it took in the outset, the manly independence of its course, as well as its honesty and consistency, would have given it a strong hold upon the Wisconsin democracy—would have given it a character and influence above that of a mere partizan print, without, in all probability, involving any sacrifice. For should Mr. Buchanan, with all deference do we say it, remove officers for continuancy upon this Lecompton matter, he will very soon find by whom the political "discarding" is to be done.

Now, how stands the News? Is it regarded as the organ of any portion of the Wisconsin democracy? Our honest "Lecomptonites," remembering its recent opposition, mock at its support, while the "anti-Lecomptonites," ignore it and despise its treachery. It has dwindled from an independent democratic journal, to the miserable position of a post office subsidiary. Its enemies spank of it with a sneer, and its few friends with a blush.

ANTI-LECOMPTON MEETING IN NEW YORK.—The following call for an Anti-Lecompton meeting in New York, appears in the papers of that city:

PUBLIC MEETING.—The citizens of New York who are opposed to the forcing upon the people of Kansas, a Constitution or Government which they have rejected, and who desire to save the National Democratic party from the complicity in the frauds by which the Lecompton Constitution is sustained, are invited to attend a public meeting, to be held at the Academy of Music, on Friday evening next, at 8 o'clock, to protest against the acceptance of that Constitution by Congress.

George Bancroft,
Wm. F. Havemeyer,
George Douglass,
Oliver DeForest Grant,
James E. Cooley,
George B. Butler, and others.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE GOVERNOR.—John L. Hathaway, Milwaukee, Major General of the 1st Division, (comprising the counties of Milwaukee, Waukesha and Racine.

Frederick Solomon, Manitowoc, Colonel of the 30th Regiment, (Manitowoc county.)

William Aldrich, Two Rivers, Lt. Colonel, ditto.

S. W. Smith, Manitowoc, Major, ditto.—Madison Journal.

☞ Nature's seed time is solemnized beneath the vaulted cathedral sky: silent dews, and gentle showers, and kindly sunshine shed their sweet influences on the teeming soil; springing verdure clothes the plain; golden wavelets, driven by the west wind, run over the joyous wheat-field; the tall maize flaunts in her crispy leaves and nodding tassels;—while we laboured and while we rest, while we waked and while we slept, God's chemistry, which we cannot see, goes on beneath the clouds; myriads and myriads of vital cells ferment with elemental life; germ and stalk, and leaf and flower, and silk and tassel, and grain and fruit, grow up from the common earth; the mowing-machine and the reaper—mute rivals of human industry—perform their gladsome task; the well filled wagon brings home the ripened treasures of the year; the bow of promise fulfilled spans the foreground of the picture, and the gracious covenant is redeemed, that while the earth remaineth, summer and winter, and heat and cold, and day and night, and seed-time and harvest shall not fail.—Everett.

HOW TO CUT GLASS WITH A PIECE OF IRON.—The Scientific American tells how this can be done: Draw with a pencil on paper any pattern to which you would have the glass conform; place the pattern under the glass, holding both together in the left hand, (for the glass must not rest on any plain surface), then take a common spike or some other similar piece of iron, heat the point of it to redness, and apply it to the edge of the glass; draw the iron slowly forward, and the edge of the glass will immediately crack; continue moving the iron slowly over the glass, tracing the pattern, and the click in the glass will follow at the distance of about half an inch, in every direction according to the motion of the iron. It may sometimes be found requisite, however, especially in forming corners, to apply a wet finger to the opposite side of the glass. Tumblers and other glasses may be cut or divided very fancifully by similar means. The iron must be reheated as often as the crevice in the glass ceases to flow.

Governor's Guard!

The members of this company held a meeting at the Court-House last evening for the election of officers. The attendance was large, and the action spirited and harmonious. There are now about sixty members enrolled, and new names are coming in rapidly. The proper interest is in the matter, and the company is bound to succeed. It is made up of men who "never surrender," and we may anticipate that it will be one of the best companies in the State, at no distant day.

The following persons were elected officers:

Captain—J. F. Atwood.
1st. Lieut.—F. D. Fuller,
2d. " —O. L. Harris,
3d. " —S. H. Donnell.
1st. Sergeant—Geo. E. Bryant.

After electing these officers, the meeting adjourned until Saturday evening at half past seven o'clock, when it will meet at the Court House, and elect the balance of the officers and complete the organization of the company. The persons elected are full of energy and enthusiasm, and are experienced military men. The selections so far, have been very judicious, and give promise of success.—Madison Journal.

FIRE.—We learn that the house of Mr. W. McEwen, of Milton, was burned on Wednesday, Mr. M. had been to Milwauke with his family to attend the election of directors of M. & M. railroad, and on arriving home, built a fire. In about half an hour the flames burst out of the roof, and the house and nearly all of its contents were destroyed. Loss $2,000—no insurance.—Janesville Gazette.

STILL ANOTHER WIFE.—The fifth wife of COOMBS, alias ESTEN, in the Suffolk County jail, Massachusetts, on the charge of bigamy, has made her appearance in the person of a young lady of Manchester, who has been married to him within a year or two.

The Fight in the House.

The Washington correspondent of the Albany Evening Journal, gives an animated and detailed account of the fracas in the House of Representatives on the memorable Lecompton night.

We copy some of the portions of the narrative:

And now the melee became general. As Kelit fell, Grow was seized by a half a dozen Southerners, among whom was Barksdale of Miss. They assert that their sole object was to stop the fight. Some believe them. But, in the twinkling of an eye, from forty to fifty Republicans came dashing across the hall to the scene of the encounter, headed by John P. Potter of Wisconsin, who leapt into the midst of the fight, by the side of Grow, with the bound of a tiger, and commenced hitting right and left among the patriotic with great vigor. Not exactly appreciating the pacific nature of Barksdale's demonstration, Potter gave him two or three 'scatterly' which Barksdale, in the pell mell going on around him, supposed were dealt by Elihu Washburne,—who just then happened to be hovering in that vicinity—whereupon patriach Barksdale set himself in hostile array against puritan Elihu. Just as this juncture the mass of belligerents and peace makers were crowding between Barksdale and Potter, the latter in the meantime having seized the former by the hair—which, by and by, proved not to be the bona fide hair of the said Barksdale, but a wig, which the said Potter had torn off, and for the time being converted to his own use. Cadwallader C. Washburne, of Wisconsin, (these Washburns are all "bloods,") seeing the bald Barksdale in conflict with his brother Elihu, felt his paternal spirits stirred within him, and rushing upon Barksdale brought down one on two blows "on the top of his head where the wool ought to grow."

* * * * * * *

All this time the Speaker was calling loudly to "order," rapping incessantly with his gavel, and shouting for the Sergeant-at-Arms. This collosal functionary seized the mace (which looks like an Indian war-club, with a small metallic eagle perched thereon,) and rushed among the struggling, surging, tossing members. Potter, seeing a big fellow with a bludgeon joining in the melee, was about to wrench it out of his hand when the shrill voice of the Speaker (Col. Orr has a voice like a steam whistle,) urging on the Sergeant, suggested that the individual might be Grossbronner, whereupon he struck out in another direction. Potter is an athletic, withy man, at home in a "muss." He got one or two hard hits himself, which he promptly repaid on the spot; and it is believed that the Chivalry will give him a wide berth during the remainder of the session.

* * * * * * *

To detail all this takes some time; and yet, the whole affair occupied only three or four minutes. After it was over, a feeling that a great danger had been shunned, and barly shunned, gave a sombre hue to thoughtful faces.—When all had passed, the Speaker, who had borne himself firmly through the wild scene, was pale and nervous. The lips of many Anti-Lecomptonites were compressed, and the responsive Yea or Nay, during the remaining hours of the night, was hissed through some teeth rather than uttered from the mouth. If the mortal struggle, which, at one moment was anticipated, had commenced, and blood had been shed, the Anti-Lecomptonites would have made a clean sweep of the Mall. All concerned may know that these gentlemen are in no frame of mind to submit quietly to insult.

The South is cowed. I know what I say—cowed. The promptness with which Grow knocked Klett down in the very midst of the Southern side of the Chabmer, and the alacrity and fire with which some fifty Republicans bounded across the Hall to join the struggle, appalled the slaveholders. Father Giddings said to-day, "I have sat in this House twenty years, and I never saw the Slave Power so completely balked and cowed as during this fifteen hours' contest."

This is the first time the new Republican members have been under a steady fire this session. They stood to their guns without flinching.

A Fine Quotation Aptly Applied.

In the Senate, recently, Mr. Brown, of Mississippi, assisted by Mr. Green, of Missouri, quoted an eloquent passage from a speech of the great Massachusetts statesman, on the Dorr rebellion. As Mr. Brown is an advocate of the Lecompton Constitution, it is presumed that he intended this authority—so contrary to the principles which leading Democrats of that day held—as giving support to this side of the question. How fully it was applied by Mr. Douglas, will appear below:

Mr. Brown—A friend has handed me a speech pronounced by a very distinguished statesman of this country in 1842, which is so opposite that I will take the liberty, with the indulgence of the Senate, of having read one or two short paragraphs. It is a speech pronounced by Mr. Webster, and published on the 19th of February, 1842, in Niles' Register.

Mr. Green read, as follows:

"Is it not obvious enough that men cannot get together, and count themselves, and say they are so many hundreds and so many thousands, and judge of their own qualifications, and call themselves the people, and set up a government? Why, another set of men, for miles off, on the same day, with the same propriety, with as good qualifications and in as large numbers, may meet and set up a government to themselves—one may meet at Newport, and another at Chepachet, and both may call themselves the people. What is this but anarchy? What liberty is there but a tumultary, tempestuous, violent, stormy liberty—a sort of South American liberty, without power, except in spasms—a liberty supported by arms to-day crushed by arms to-morrow. Is that our liberty?

"This regular action of popular power, on the other hand, places upon public liberty the most beautiful face that ever adorned that angel form. All is regular and harmonious in its features, and gentle in its operation. The stream of public authority, under American liberty, running in this channel, has the strength of the Missouri, while its waters are as transparent as those of a crystal lake. It is powerful for good. It produces no tumult, no violence, and no wrong. It is well enough described in those lines of Sir Thomas Denman—it is a stream

"Though deep yet clear, though gentle yet not dull, Strong without rage, without o'erflowing full."

Mr. Douglas—I endorse heartily every word there is in that beautiful passage from Mr. Webster's speech. I should like to know on what question it was made.

Mr. Brown—On the Rhode Island question.

Mr. Douglas—So I supposed.

Mr. Simmons—I bought so.

Mr. Douglas—Then it was a speech against the right to change an existing Constitution in opposition to the constituted government in existence, and it is a beautiful authority against the right under the Lecompton Constitution to change it in any mode except that authorized by the Constitution, and I am very much obliged to the Senator for having quoted it on this occasion.

Mr. Brown—I quote the sentiment for what it says, that public opinion is to be ascertained under the forms of law, and not through mob meetings.

THE APPLETON MURDER—THE MURDERER STILL AT LARGE.—Last week we published a short account of the murder of James Duggan, by one John Hogan, at Appleton, a short time since.—Hogan escaped, and at last accounts was still at large. The Appleton Oresent, of the 6th, has the following particulars about the affair:

"Hogan and several others were returning from Little Chute, where they had been to attend a funeral, and stopped at the house of one Jones, upon Appleton st., where they had a quarrel of some kind among themselves. Some, if not all of the party, had been drinking before they came to town. A gentleman who had happened to be passing, persuaded Duggan to go in as they were countrymen of his, and try to still the row, they having become very uproarious.—The deceased did so, and as soon as he entered, Hogan started out, picked up a heavy sled stake from the frozen ground, deliberately knocked off the ice and dirt, and then walked into the house with it, and immediately struck Duggan a tremendous blow upon the side of the head, felling him instantly, after which he hurried into the street, where he was grappled by Mr. D. S. Supple, who, entirely unarmed, (although several persons stood around), attempted to arrest him, and would have done so if his wife, who was very sick at the time, had not come to the door of his residence, attracted by the uproar, and thus called off his attention.

Other men stood by and made no attempt to capture him! Mr. Duggan was conveyed home, and upon examination it was found that his skull was broken and frightfully crushed in. He expired at about six o'clock, on Saturday morning. We are told that there was no old difficulty between the parties in relation to a land matter, and that Hogan had long previously threatened vengeance upon the deceased.

Duggan leaves a wife and three children, and numerous relatives in different parts of the Co. Hogan has also a wife and three children, and numerous connections.

Since Saturday morning, a continuous search has been made by Officers Marston and McGrath and a numerous posse, but the accused has not yet been taken.

Wife of Com. Perry Dead.

NEWPORT, R. I., Feb. 12.

The wife of Com. O. H. Perry, U. S. N., died last night. The funeral will take place from Trinity Church, in this city, on Sunday.

STRANGE CASE OF POLITICAL SUICIDE.—We translate the following, with a slight variation, from the New York German Kladderadatsch:

SUICIDE.—Our Washington correspondent informs us that, one of those terrible cases of suicide which have of late become so common, forms at present a subject of conversation in all circles in this city. A man named James Buchanan, somewhat advanced in years, and dwelling, if we are correctly informed, in the notorious "White House," recently cut his throat, while busied with a "gouge," which had been sharpened up to what is known as a message. Only a few minutes before the deed, the deceased had been conversing in tones of great hilarity, with several Southern Senators, after which he went into his workshop. In two hours after, the dreadful deed was done.

"An inquest was held by Coroner Sam, but the most searching investigation failed to show what motive Buchanan had for the rash act.—The jury gave as verdict, "The deceased, James Buchanan, came to his end by cutting his throat with a message, while laboring under an attack of insanity."

Moulton City Town and Land Company.

A. B. PAUL, one of the proprietors, is now in this city for the purpose of securing machinery for mills, &c. All persons contemplating moving West early in the coming season, are cordially invited to call and examine our plans, maps, &c., at the American House. A good opportunity is also offered to mechanics and tradesmen of all kinds, to secure—"even with limited means"—good homes in one of the richest valleys of the Northwest.

See pamphlet containing sketch, &c., of country adjacent, and plan of the proprietors in building up an important point on the Sioux River, Iowa. We want actual settlers. Call and see us and talk the matter over. dec23 0dif

☞ There are plenty of young gentlemen as well as plenty of old ones whose beards are turning grey, which gives the former a great deal of uneasiness, and exposes the age of the latter. To avoid these little perplexities, we advise such of our readers to use Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, which will, in the course of a few weeks, change the hair to its natural color. It does not dye the hair like the most of the hair restoratives, but produces a gradual change of color from the roots of the hair to the final end, and gives it a fine and glossy appearance. We have seen many persons who have used it since the discovery, and pronounce it the only invention which has come to their idea of a cure for grey heads.—We commenced using it about two months since, and if we are any judge of age and beauty, it has made us at least ten years younger; in fact we are beginning to look quite young, and feel very much like getting a young wife! The change is miraculous; and it would be as difficult to find a grey hair now as it would be to find an idea in the head of the Duke of Buckingham. We know several old maids and some young widows, whose looks are just beginning to assume a silvery hue, and who have been taking serious thoughts about resorting to this remedy, and we advise them not to delay any longer. It never fails.—St. Louis Herald.

A VALUABLE MEDICINE.

DURING the present week no less than six of our friends who have been induced to try Prof. De Grath's Electric Oil for Rheumatism, in consequence of having seen this preparation advertised in our columns, have called upon us to state the result of their experiments.—Those persons assure us that their rheumatic pains have been entirely cured by a few applications of De Grath's Electric Oil, and they recommend its use to all who are afflicted with any of the diseases which it is designed to cure.—*Prov. CHURCH TACTICS—EYES UP; KNEES DOWN.—The N. Y. Times relates a bit of West Point gossip. The chaplain there is the Rev. Mr. French, an Episcopal Clergyman—the same who testified to Col. Fremont's Catholicism during the last campaign. The cadets are made up of every kind of religionists from the Hard Shell Baptist down to the believer in sackcloth and ashes, and long faces. Not long since the Chaplain read the cadets a severe lecture for their inattention to the religious services—at which all are required to be present—and especially because of their failure to make the customary responses to kneel at the places appointed in the Episcopal services, &c. Major Delafield, the Military Commandant at the Point, followed up the lecture, which was couched with a declaration to the cadets that he should in future demand the observances of religious forms from every one of them, as a matter of discipline. Against this the cadets rebel, and they have agreed—Episcopalians and all—not to make the responses unless Major Delafield rises in the chapel and gives the word of command in military style.

A LARGE CAVE EXPLORED.—A friend in Ohio county writes to the Louisville Journal, and gives an account of the partial exploration of a remarkable cave in that county. "An entrance to the cave was effected through a narrow passage about thirty feet long, which opened into an egg-shaped room, some thirty feet long and fifteen high. The exploring party visited, through various passages, five other rooms, in one of which was a small set-off as if made by man, and on it were three books and several letters, none of which the gentlemen could make out. They also found in this room silvery-looking metal that had been run into lumps. In another room they found human bones. It is the intention of the gentlemen engaged in this exploration to make a more thorough examination of this cave. Our correspondent thinks it will prove to be as extensive a cave as the Mammoth."

"SAMIEL, DEVASE OF VIDDERS."—The Schenectady Reflector is responsible for the following: Quite a mistake lately occurred in a love affair at Dunnsburg. A couple of young ones agreed to elope together, and by some mistake in the preliminary arrangements, the gentleman put his ladder up to the window, of the room next to the one in which his sweet heart slept, and which proved to be that in which her anxious mamma, a handsome widow, reposed.—She turned the mistake to her own advantage; got into his arms; returned his affectionate embraces; was borne by him to the carriage, and by preserving becoming silence until daylight, kept him blind of his error, and by the potent power of her blandishments, actually charmed him into matrimony with herself. We give these facts on the authority of a responsible correspondent.

MR. AND MRS. L. S. R. DE CRETY, from Paris, for four years professors in foreign languages in Milwaukee, have the honor to inform the public that they will form classes in the French, Italian and Spanish Languages on the 1st of September next. The course of instruction will be according to the age and intelligence of the pupils, and the classes kept entirely separate, their house being arranged with that view.

Gentlemen and ladies who begin to speak either of these languages, can continue lessons in Reading and Conversation, Mr. De Crery furnishing books of the best French authors. Those too wishing to learn vocal music in either of these languages, will find a competent music teacher in the establishment.

The hours of instruction will be from 8 to 11 o'clock A. M., and from 2 to 5 P. M.. And in the evening from half past 6 to 9, for conversation.

Mr. DE CRETY will also give lessons in French, Spanish and Italian, at his office, to gentlemen only, from 7 to 10 o'clock in the evening, as also lessons in Fencing, the use of the Sword and Military exercises. Persons of delicate constitution and feeble temperament, as also those confined to their offices and engaged in sedentary pursuits, will derive from these exercises, improvement in their health, acquire strength in their limbs and find an agreeable recreation.

Mr. De Crety will also form similar classes for children, from 10 to 15 years old, at his house, or office, as parents may prefer. Fathers and mothers who desire to see their children strong, active and robust, can judge for themselves, after a few weeks trial, as to the effect of these different exercises upon their health.

The continued patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.

TO MERCHANTS.—Mr. De Crety will take charge of French correspondence to all the principalities of France and will procure all Price Currents that they may want.
